AGENDA ITEM 6. Board of Supervisors' Requests
Vice Chair Robinson stated that she was pleased with the proposal. "I do not want to see our department suffer" due to lack of positions.

Supervisor Edwards stated that "we need more coverage" (pertaining to Fire/EMS) and the lack of services in the Second District.

Supervisor Fogg stated that he is "sad that the first responder positions are not being funded, and I am wondering if we will be able to do what is being asked next year. I think its important to fund these positions." "I am okay with the revenue side of this".

Supervisor Bohannon - stated that he was good with the proposal, the taxes stay the same on the real estate. Fire and EMS is a top level priority and agrees with Supervisor Edwards that District Two is a long district and it needs services. I believe that this accomplishes what we can do this year. Staff has done an amazing job in presenting this budget, going back in the years to obtain the information.

AGENDA ITEM 7. Adjourn or Recess
Chair Bohannon opened the floor, Supervisor Fogg made a motion to adjourn the meeting and the motion was seconded by Supervisor Robinson. The Chair polled the members, all were in favor and none were opposed.
